

GOVERNOR ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER

May 19, 2006

Play Golf America Day

I am pleased to offer my warmest greetings as you gather for Play Golf America Day.

Today, thousands of Californians will come together to play the wonderful game of golf. By promoting physical activity, wholesome competition and sportsmanship, golf exemplifies the many benefits we derive from athletics.

As a former professional athlete myself, I can appreciate the determination it takes to learn a difficult sport like golf. That is why I am proud to welcome enthusiasts and casual golfers alike to the beautiful Haggin Oaks Golf Complex.

I salute the supporters and organizers of this event for encouraging Americans to engage in healthy activity and spend a day of recreation with friends and family.

Please accept my best wishes for a memorable event and every future success.

Sincerely,
